We're No. 1! This painting shows everyone around that we are the WRHS Demons and that we're proud of it, too!

Take a Closer Look

... at WRHS and the numerous opportunities it has to offer. At first glance our school appears to be an average one: a red brick building with rows and rows of windows, a parking lot filled with all types of cars, and about 1800 people walking about the campus. These people, however, are what make WRHS special. Teachers and students attend from all over. Exchange students from such places as Australia, Europe, and the Orient add variety and culture to our lives. Other students have simply grown up here and have filled their respective roles in high school by participating in academics, art, athletics, music, student government, and/or various other extracurricular activities. But whatever the activity or group in which we are involved, we are all part of WRHS, and we command the respect and admiration of our families, community leaders, and neighboring schools - inviting all to TAKE A CLOSER LOOK

The ROTC Color Guard carries the state and national flags in the pregame show at all of the football games.

French Club Sweetheart Amanda Cooke, an exchange student from Australia, waves to the crowd in the Homecoming Parade.

A new marching style? No, Tim Atkins is just waiting for the Homecoming Parade to begin. The parade was delayed for a short while this year and could not begin until the Student Council float arrived.

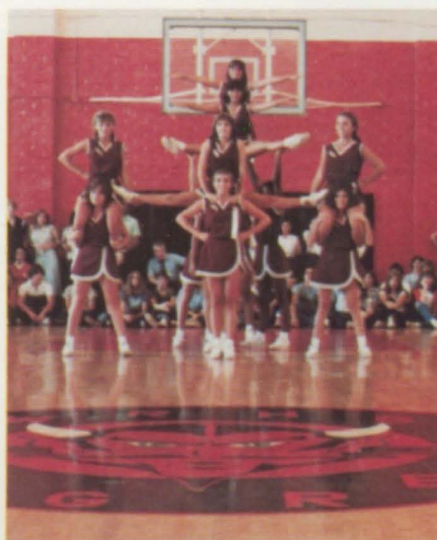

These deserted benches at the bus ramp are usually filled with WRHS students waiting for rides home from school.

From their position high atop the International City Stadium, reporters in the press box are able to accurately see all the action and relay it back to Demon fans.

Tanya Morris "Hits You With Her Best Shot" in Revue '81.

The varsity cheerleaders perform a stunt at one of the pep rallies.

Amid shouts of "Go, Big Red!" and "All the Way, Demons!" the football team warms-up shortly before the opening kickoff.

After painting signs to promote school spirit, Pep Club member Denise Hughes takes advantage of a few minutes' rest.

Angela McKinney and back-ups Traci McKenzie and Dee Dee Singleton carry the Revue '81 audience back to the '60's as they sing a medley of the Supremes' hits.

"... and Here Come the Demons! ..." fired up for another big victory over an ill-fated opponent.

Band members are lined up and ready for the show to begin.

Moments after winning float competition, juniors are ecstatic over their first place finish for their float, a train.

Abilities

"The Best of Times:" Janie Elliott and Ricky James add a special touch to the seniors' interpretation of the Homecoming Parade theme.

WRHS is a name known all over the state of Georgia because its students and their abilities have made the school famous. The football team proves its worth every weekend of the season. Likewise, the band proudly marches to display its outstanding talent. WRHS students constantly utilize their abilities to make their school a great one. Several clubs have members who are officers in the state organizations. And each year we have a large number of students selected for All-State Chorus, Band, and Orchestra, and the Governor's Honors Program. The WRHS Literary Team almost always places in region and state competition, as do several of our athletic teams. The one-act play and the annual Revue give artistically inclined students a chance to present their entertaining capabilities. Each day, our skills and accomplishments shine brightly for all to SEE that WRHS is Number One!

Wow! Dazzling the entire school, Majorettes Captain Amber Lanier displays her baton-twirling talent at a pep rally.

This trophy case is a treasure chest for awards that WRHS has received in its long history of winning.

The Homecoming Court waits for the beginning of the parade. Electing this group each year is a favorite among WRHS traditions.

Traditions

One of the best aspects of attending WRHS is experiencing the traditions which have become such a vital part of the school. These traditions are long-continued and have been handed down from class to class throughout our school's history. Tradition, that "something extra," fulfills a leading role at Warner Robins. It teaches us to appreciate and take pride in our school: its past, present, and future. We learn what is expected of us as sophomores and meet these expectations as juniors and seniors. As we endure club initiations . . . order class rings . . . build homecoming floats . . . elect class officers . . . plan the Junior-Senior Prom . . . and attend club conventions, we live-out WRHS traditions. These traditions have allowed our school to remain a great one for many years.

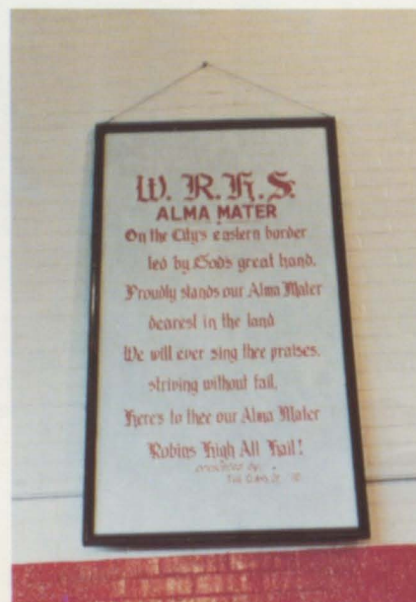

The class ring: a traditional symbol of reaching high school and becoming a member of a graduating class.

Our Demon stands guard in the senior lobby.

The juniors yell their loudest in an attempt to perk up the spirit at a pep rally.

Reciting the words on this poster is perhaps one of the oldest traditions at WRHS.

Jonathan Shippey talks with yearbook representatives from Walsworth Publishing Company at the Georgia Yearbook Event held in Atlanta for annual staffs throughout the state.

Slow dancin' in the gazebo at the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom are Brenda Brown and David Taylor.

"Woodstock forever!" This mob of angry '60's demonstrators is really a group of Anchor Club initiates doing what they must to become members.

In sharp contrast to the drawbacks of getting initiated, Anchor President Melanie Giddens enjoys the benefits of initiating people, as one of her little sisters has prepared a candlelight dinner for her in the school lunchroom.

Keith Woods concentrates while taking a test in Mrs. Noble's American History class.

Lisa Nichols, Jan Norris, and Niki Holloway serve up the food they have prepared in their Home Economics class.

Role Reversal? Miss Wade's English students send her to the stocks.

Thomas Rowe and John Watson work on a lab in their Senior Chemistry class.

At a faculty meeting which took place in the library during pre-planning, WRHS teachers get ready for the new school year.

Jan Grizzle does a flip in her gymnastics class.

"ASDFJKL;" Billy Arnett sharpens his skills in his typing course.

In Drama, Russ Adams and Tammy Milbrandt perform an improvisational assignment.

Academics

WRHS offers many interesting courses and has well-informed faculty members to teach them. Students can choose from such diverse topics as welding, chorus, weight-lifting, and drama. Many people select classes that they feel will aid them in their future career or college, while others simply take what is necessary to graduate. Whatever the case, it is possible to take enjoyable as well as informative subjects during the six-period-a-day schedule. For future homemakers and future bachelors, home economics courses can be useful. Prospective college students will find the typing, math, English, social studies, and science classes to be beneficial. Art, chorus, band, drama, and creative writing courses will appeal to those people who are interested in fine arts. You may have to LOOK hard to find the right class, but whatever your interest or ability may be, WRHS has a class for you.

For students who enjoy singing, chorus is a welcome break in the daily routine.

Womens' Lib? Lynn Sletto shows that girls make good weightlifters too.

Trumpeters Randy Newsome, William Clark, and Ray Hill are conducted by Mr. Warnock in Lab Band.

Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores

Class divisions are strong at WRHS. Seniors assume the role of the "tired, old" veteran. They are usually authoritative, well-informed, and proud . . . of themselves, their class, and their school. Seniors have the distinct benefits of going to pep rallies ahead of the other classes, nominating the Homecoming Court, voting for Outstanding Seniors, exempting finals, relaxing on the Senior Bench, receiving their yearbooks before anyone else in the school, enjoying a "Senior Day," and going on the Senior Trip. Juniors order their class rings, sell magazines, and plan the Junior-Senior Prom. And for the sophomores, finally getting the chance to attend "the big school" is a privilege in itself. Each class has a definite identity which sets it apart from the others, and all of the students are proud of "their year" and the class of which they are a part.

A view from the sophomores: Jay Loudin and Eddie McCamish watch what's happening in the lobby.

At the Homecoming pep rally, senior football players Mark Starnes and Eddie Anderson give a fired-up talk to the school.

Under the supervision of her senior instructor Shannon Greenwell, junior initiate Cathy Beveridge learns to do a Hawaiian dance as part of the Anchor initiations at Houston Mall.

The senior parking lot. Being able to park close to the school building makes it easier for seniors to get to homeroom on time!

The sophomores evacuate a pep rally after a very powerful smoke bomb was put in their section of the gym. Soon, the smoke filled the entire gym, and the pep rally was unfortunately cancelled.

While seniors, such as Emily Smisson, have a photographic portrait made at Olson's Studio; underclassmen, like Jeff Wilson, have "just another picture" taken at school.

Students order their senior tee shirts. This year, the VICA Club lowered the price to five dollars and offered two styles of the shirts.

Seniors come alive at the first pep rally of the school year.

All that red and white! At all of the games, spirited Demon fans wear as much of the school colors as possible.

Addressing the school at a pep rally, Coach Davis does what he can to boost morale.

Heads or tails? Football team Captains Roger Glover and Chuck Boyd wait for the coin toss to determine who will kick off.

Steppin' high to the band's beat, Flag Corps Captain Dana Woodard performs a routine.

At the Homecoming Parade, Donna Koerner clowns around to show her school spirit.

Decked out in their red and white, Keith Dunnaway, Sonya Addison, Terry Young, and Marsha Thorn show their interest in the school.

Judy Elder and Stacy Haugabrook teach
WRHS students a new cheer.

Who was that masked man? Demon Fever strikes Brett
Lowe, and he is dressed accordingly.

Take a Closer Look . . .

Spirit

"Who are the Demons?" "WE ARE THE DEMONS!" . . . and proud of it, too! WRHS abounds with enthusiasm over its many achievements. We scream our lungs out at pep rallies, wear as much red as we can, and do anything else necessary to show that we are proud of our school. Every club in which we are involved and every activity in which we participate is a conscientious effort on our part to get involved and show our school spirit. It is sometimes difficult to be spirited when we are fairly confident that our team will stomp on its opponent every week. But we are always proud to be part of the "Big Red Demon Machine" and the "Dixie Express," and it feels good to be able to say, "I go to Warner Robins High." And no matter which way the game may turn out, we'll always feel a great sensation when we hear the announcement that "Ladies and Gentlemen, you are now in Demon Country!"

Mrs. Way, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Ringler watch the action at a pep rally.

Getting involved can sometimes mean hard work! After school one day in the fall, band members practice their halftime show.

Go Hawaiian! Mrs. Hammond and her students are dressed for the occasion on "Hawaiian Day."

Goals

During our years at WRHS each of us will set and strive to attain some type of goal. Some of us will reach our goals; many others will fall short, yet perhaps gain more through the struggle. Many will run for office; others will do what is necessary to meet a certain club's acceptance requirements. Still others will give their best effort to a particular athletic or artistic field. Whatever the task, it will not be an easy one. Some will be recognized for their achievements, while many others will only be rewarded with personal satisfaction. But it is important to remember that it is through our attempts to succeed that we grow. And finally, growing is a common goal for all of us, for only as we grow can we clearly observe what is happening and actually TAKE A CLOSER LOOK at ourselves.

Joe Winner and Jeff Netzing climb the stairs to their next class.

An empty auditorium waits for the beginning of another show.

Winning float competition was a goal that the Class of '82 never managed to reach. But the class members had a great time trying as Jackie Phillips, Kim Payne, Toni Loudin, and Donna Hunter show us while they ride the float in this year's parade.

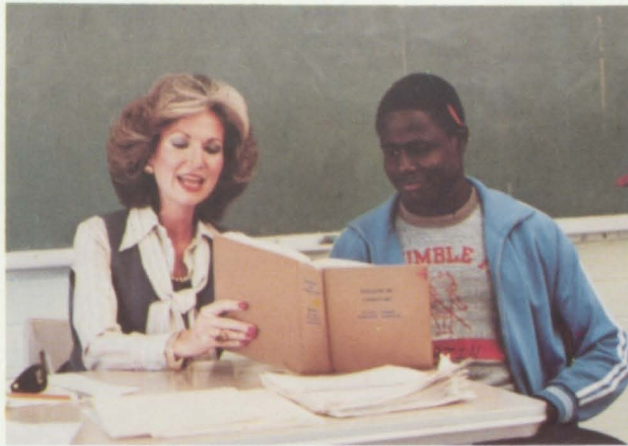

Staring intently at the band, Drum Majorette Becky Barnes conducts one of the group's songs.

Kim Payne presents her speech for the office of Senior Class Treasurer.

In an English Literature class, Mrs. Floyd explains an assignment to Joseph Martin.

What will your goal be?

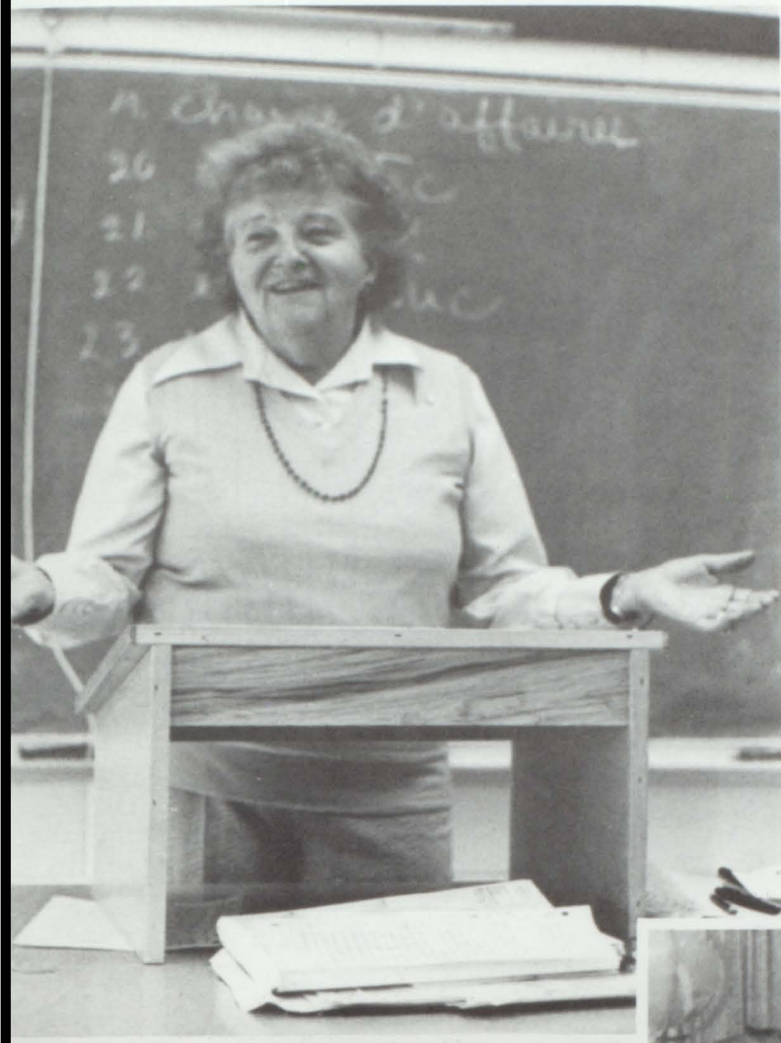

Superman (Daryl Joiner) saves the day for old lady Lisa McDonald in Revue '81.

Dedication-Mrs. Mary Hammond

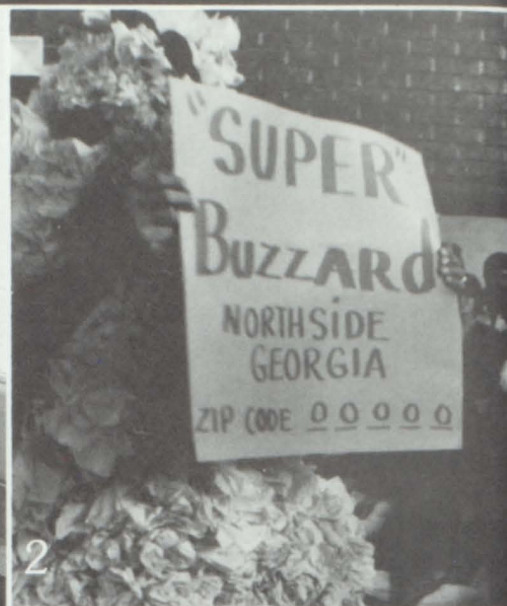

We, the members of the yearbook staff of WRHS, dedicate the 1982 Pioneer to one of the most long-standing and admired members of our teaching staff. In addition to the efforts she has put forth to help us become informed and to prepare us for the future, she has given much of her time outside the classroom to benefit school activities. During her years at WRHS, she has served as Social Studies Department Chairman and adviser to each year's junior class in its production of the prom. She has been an active sponsor of the American Legion's Oratorical Contest and has also helped sell tickets to athletic events, Follies, and Revue. As we leave WRHS we, the Seniors, will always remember her consistency as an educator and friend.

It is with great honor and appreciation that we dedicate this annual to Mrs. Mary Hammond.

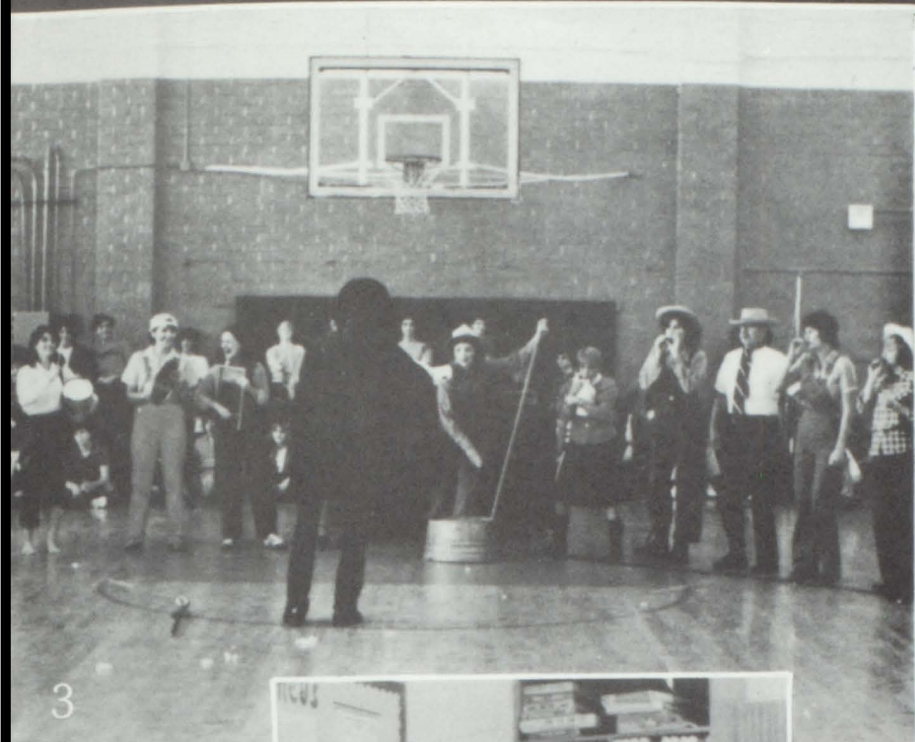

Take a Closer Look

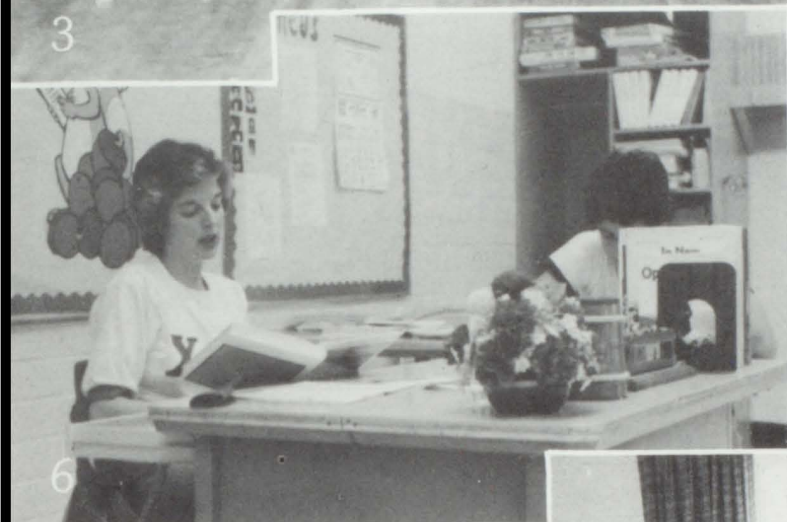

The faculty members at WRHS teach us as much as we students are willing to learn. Our teachers come from many different places and have diverse backgrounds. They provide a wealth of knowledge and information we can use in our preparation for colleges or careers. These educators have chosen a field in which the pay is limited and the fruits of their efforts are sometimes never seen. Our instructors help us find our way as we grow; they offer us . . .

Guidance

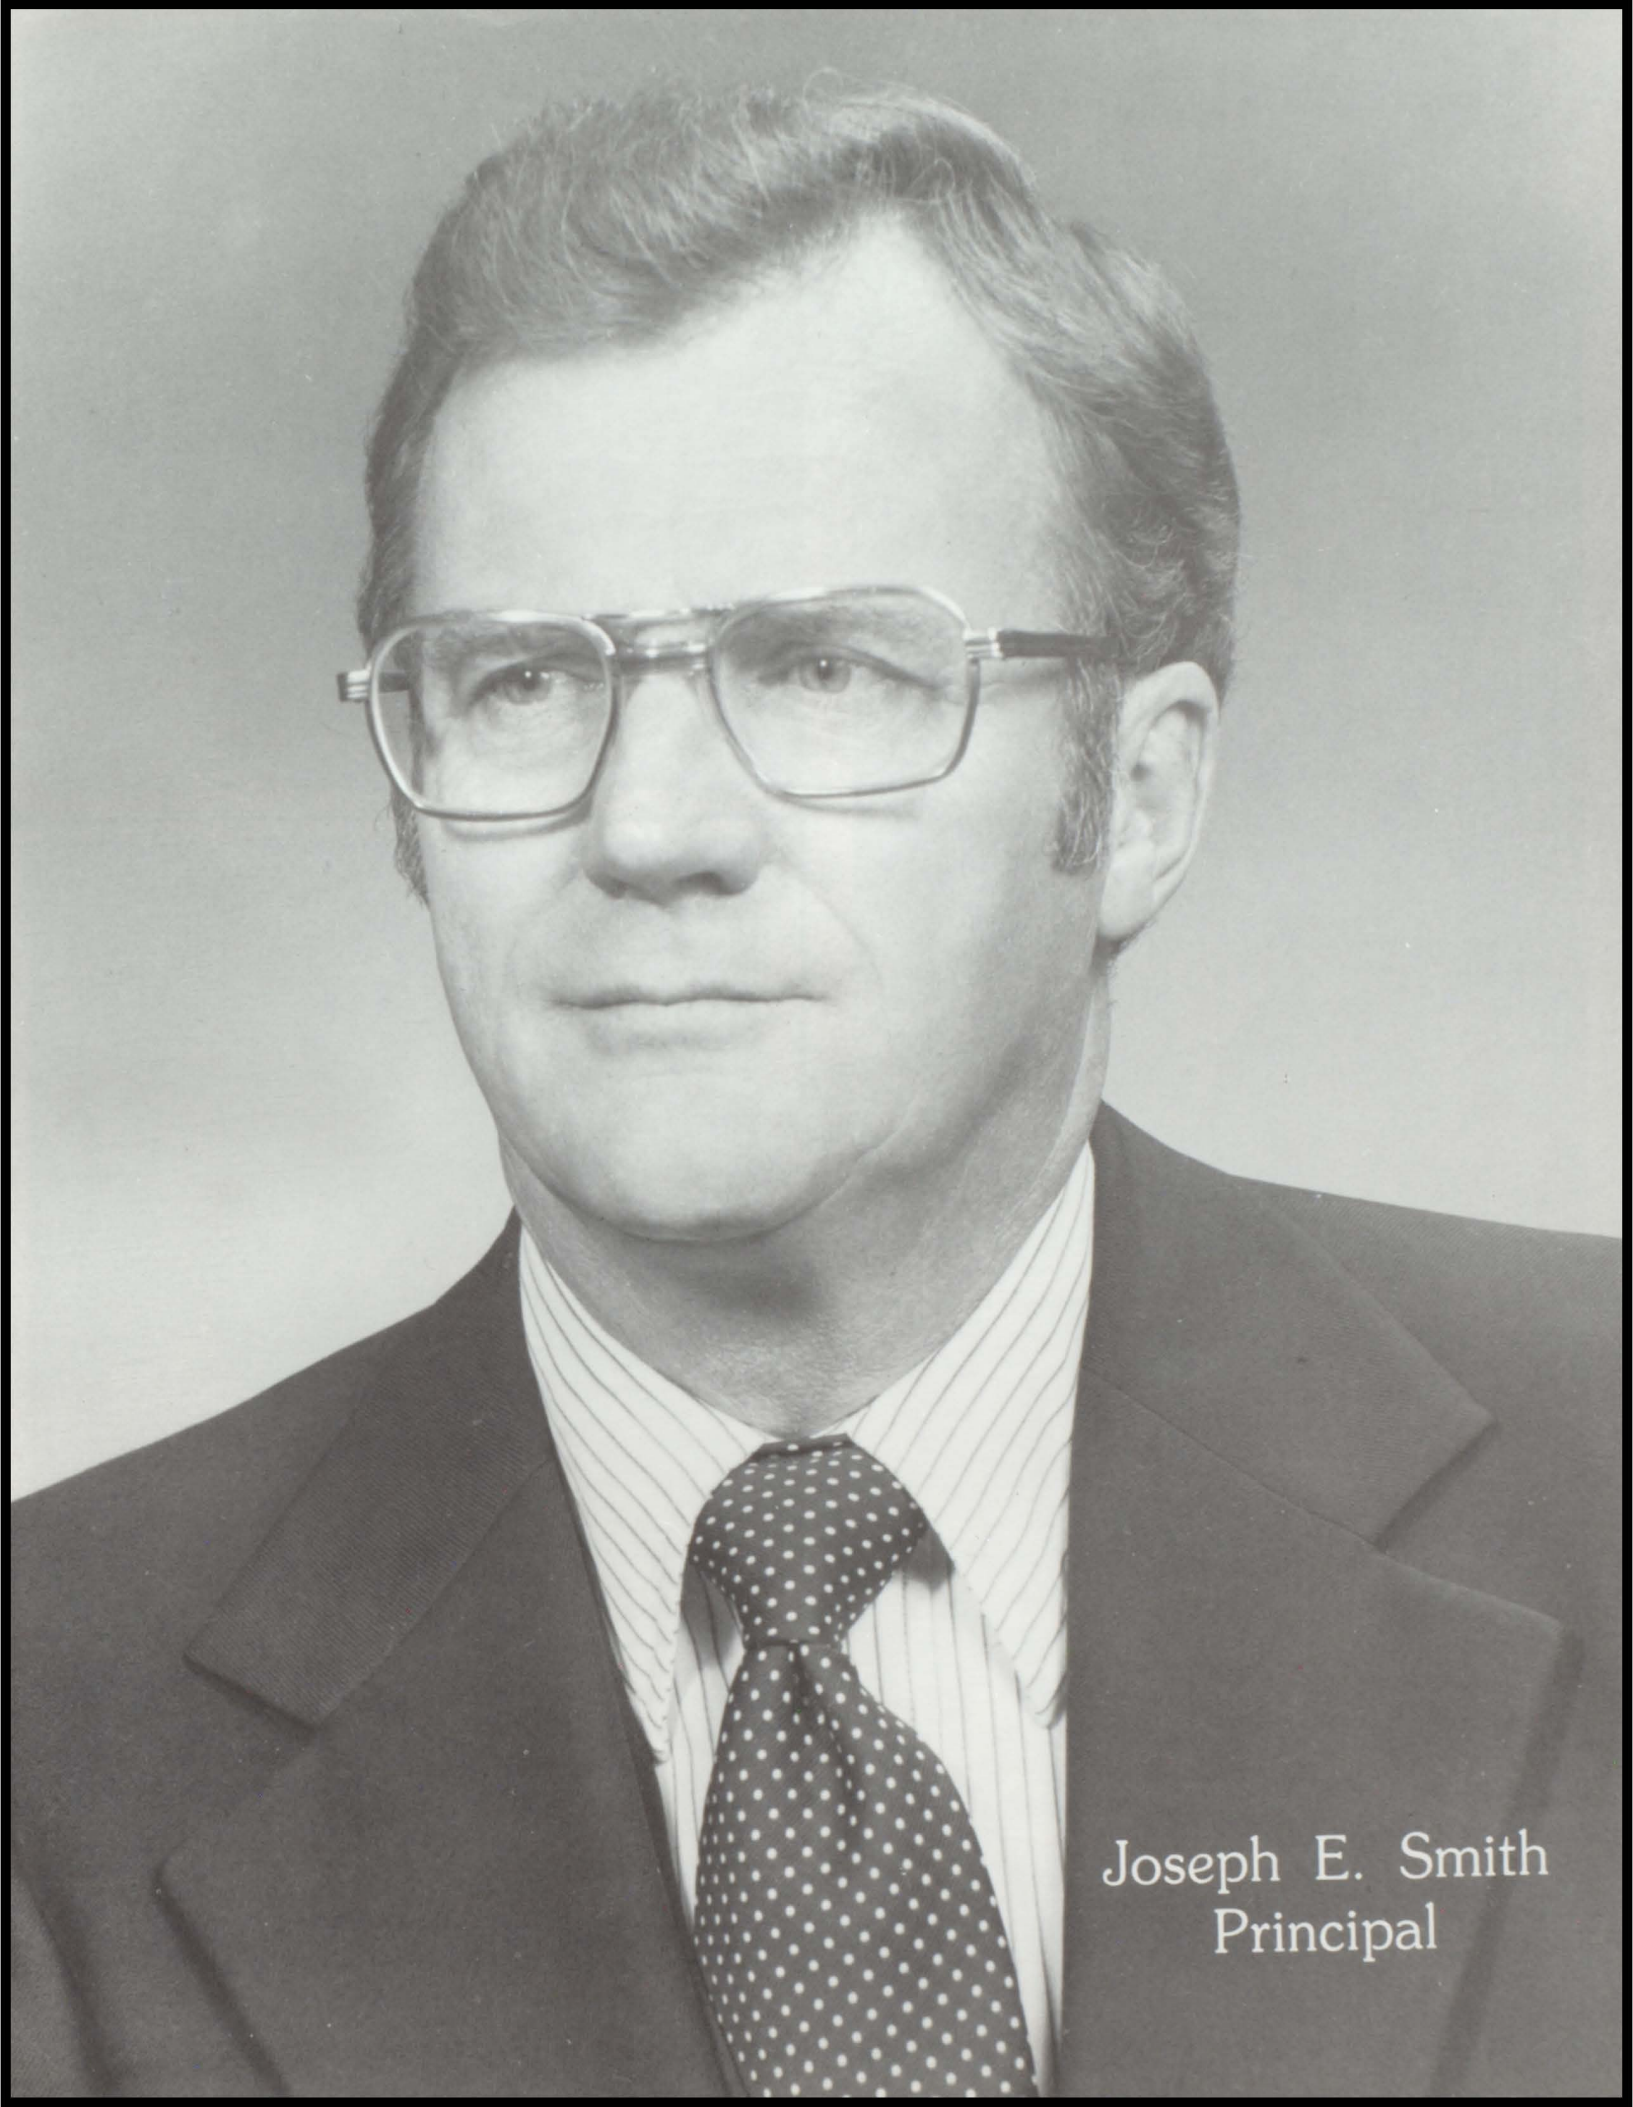

(1) Mrs. Farris looks up from her work in the guidance office. (2) "Super Buzzard" Mr. Hinnant performs at the Northside Pep Rally. (3) Mr. Ponder conducts the (un)official WRHS Faculty Orchestra. (4) A bright smile temporarily interrupts Mrs. Noble's lecture. (5) Mrs. Childs is slightly amused in Drama. (6) Mrs. Tydings reads aloud at her desk while a student listens. (7) "Take a Closer Look" at Mrs. Markert through the window in her door. (8) Chaperoning at the Jr.-Sr. Prom are Mr. Gilreath and date, Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. McConnell, and Mrs. Copeland and date. (9) Keeping the beat, Mrs. Beth McConnell directs the Chorus. (10) While Mrs. Stewart takes a break in her office Mrs. Barr makes use of the adding machine.

Take a Closer Look

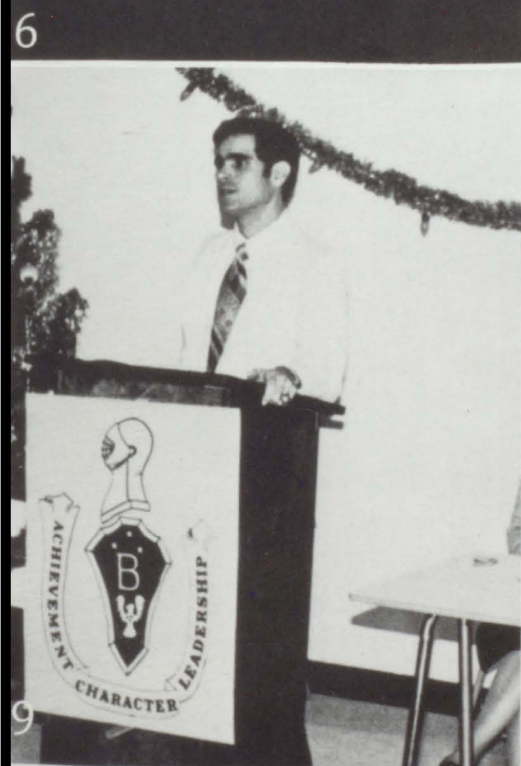

During our years at WRHS almost everyone will strive to achieve some objective. This feat may be large or small, recognized or unnoticed, but the result is the same: the person will have struggled to attain a goal. Some people have been rewarded in tangible ways, while others only receive personal satisfaction for their efforts. Just as each of us wants to succeed at one task or another, we can likewise share others' joys and praise them for their . . .

(9) At the Beta Club Induction, Chaplain Glenn Nowell speaks on "The Rewards Received for Hard Work." (10) Coach Davis was honored this year when the 1981 Football program was dedicated to him. Here, GA Southern Head Coach Erk Russell makes the presentation.

Mark Starnes

Mark has played football during every year of high school; he also played basketball and baseball his freshman year. That same year he was in Beta Club, Spanish Club and Pep Club. Mark participated in Student Council for three years and was in the Honors Program for two. He has been in Fellowship of Christian Athletes since his sophomore year and has been in the Letterman's Club since his junior year, having earned a two-year letter in football. Mark also has a three-year Perfect Attendance Award for football. In addition, he was nominated for Governor's Honors two years in a row and received the Georgia Certificate of Merit as a junior.

Brenda Brown

Brenda has been in Beta Club since her freshman year, serving as Vice President in ninth and twelfth grades. She was in Student Council for three years and an Office Assistant for two. Brenda was Ninth Grade Favorite, a member of annual staff, and a cheerleader her freshman year and was also on the softball team. The next year she became a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was the Captain of the Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad. Brenda joined the French Club and was selected as that club's Homecoming Parade Sweetheart as a junior. Also, she received the Georgia Certificate Merit. As a senior Brenda was a Varsity Cheerleader, President of French Club, Treasurer for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and a member of the yearbook staff and Letterman's Club. She was also an Optimist Youth of the Month and was selected to be on the 1981-82 Homecoming Court.

Mr. and Miss Class of 1982

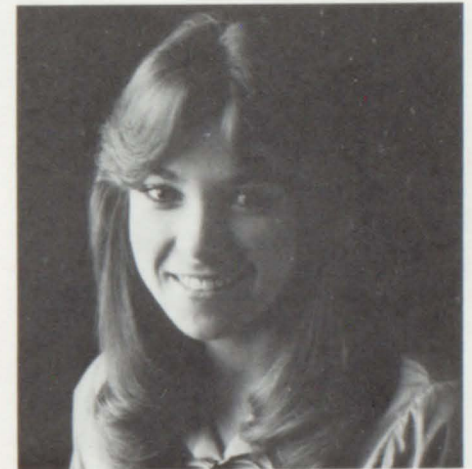

Jonathan Shippey

Jonathan has been a member of Beta Club and annual staff for four years, serving as Yearbook Editor his freshman and senior years and Beta Club President as a senior. He has been active in Chorus, Choraliers, the Honors Program, and he is also a three-year member of Student Council. As a sophomore Jonathan was selected for Governor's Honors in music, and he was chosen for the Georgia All-State Orchestra during both his junior and senior years. In the eleventh grade he was the Runnerup for Georgia State Beta Club President, was elected Junior Class Vice President, and received the Georgia Certificate of Merit. During his senior year Jonathan was in Humanities, Revue '82, and was also an Anchor Club Admiral.

Lori Painter

Lori was a cheerleader and participated in Pep Club, Prayer Club, annual staff, and Student Council her freshman year, serving as Student Council Program Chairman. During every year of Sr. High School, she has been a cheerleader and a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, having been elected Vice President her junior year. As a senior Lori was on annual staff and participated in the Letterman's Club. She was also elected to the 1981-82 Homecoming Court.

Mark McGee

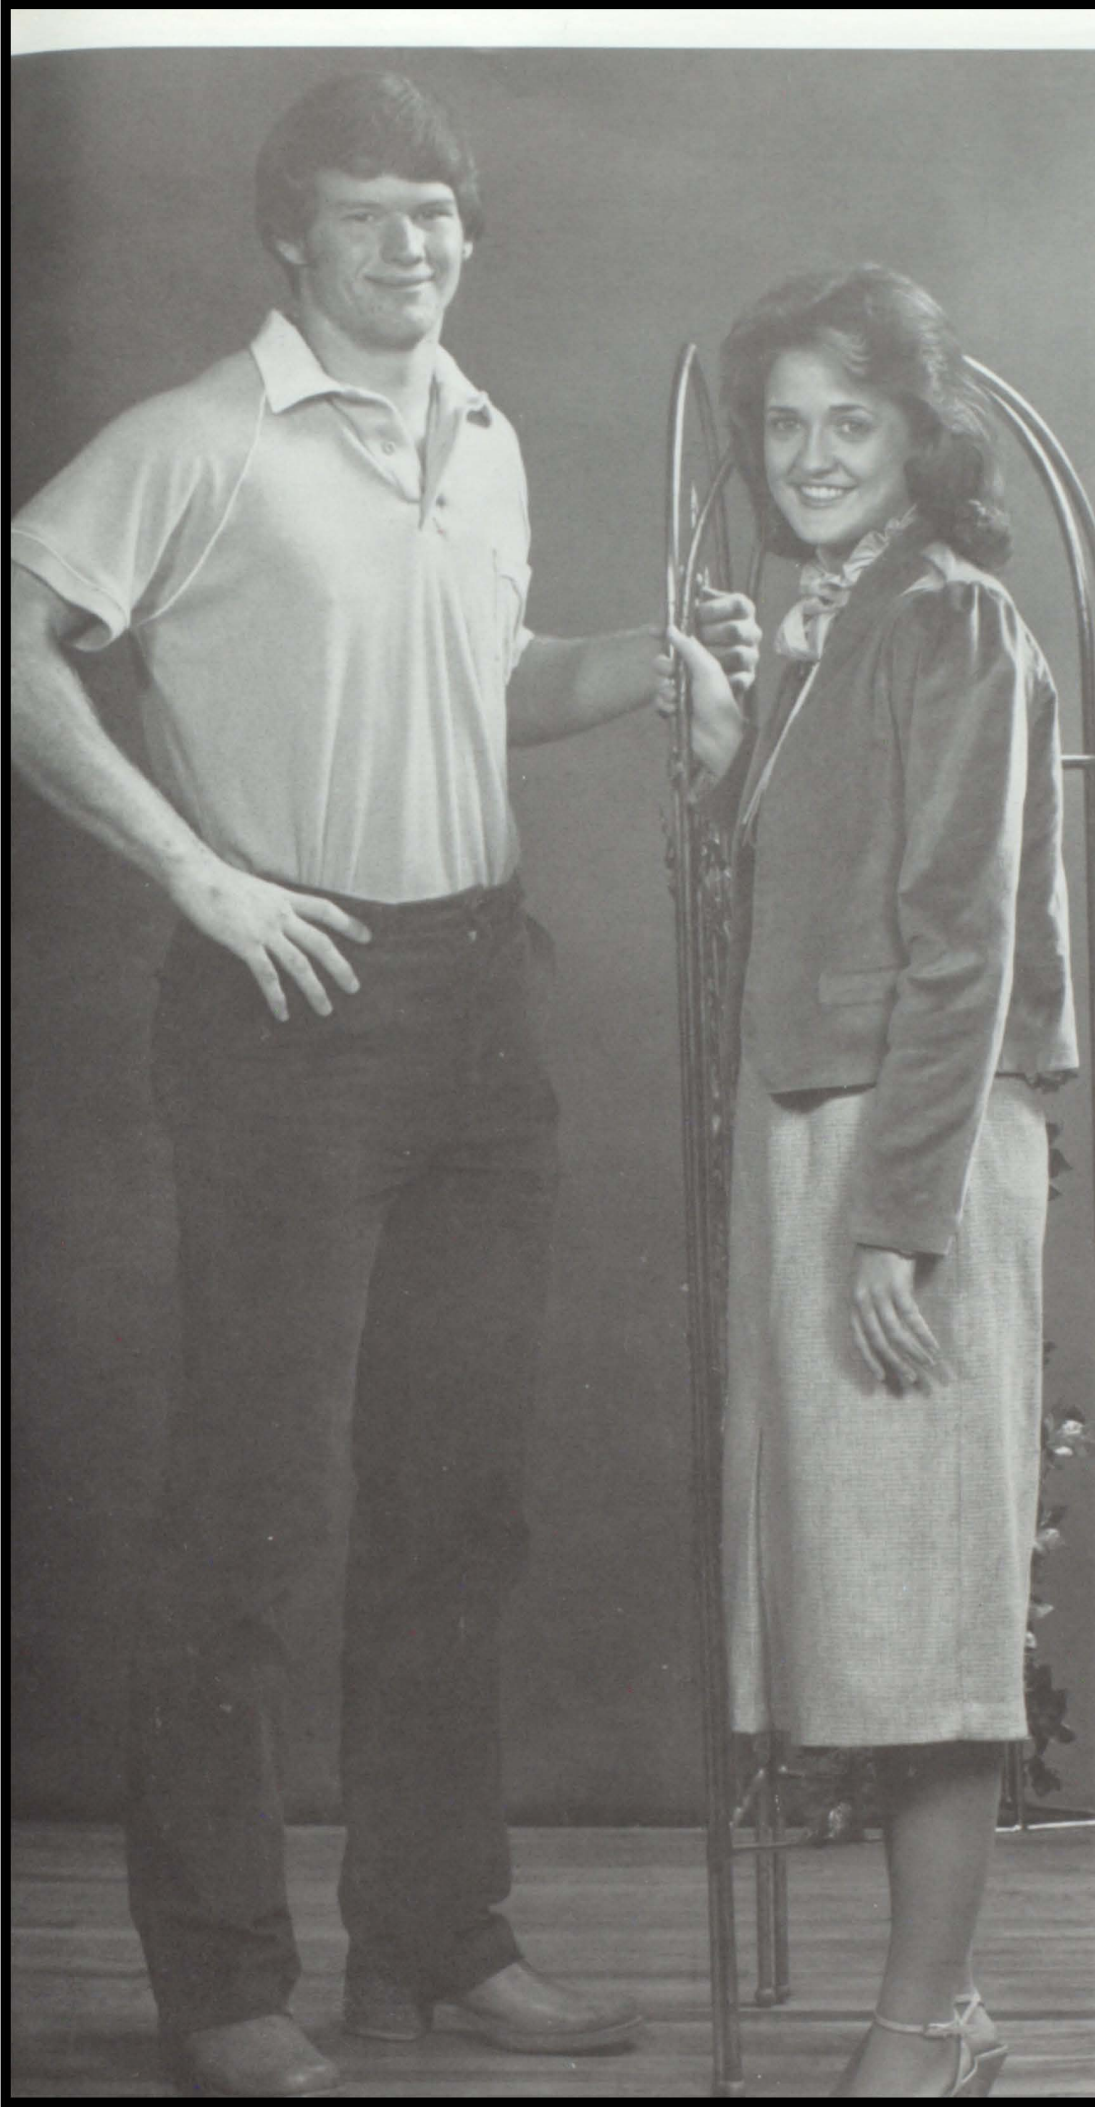

Mark played basketball and was a member of Student Council his freshman and sophomore years. He has participated in baseball and football since his freshman year and has been a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes since his sophomore year. Mark has a two-year letter in baseball and a three-year letter in football. As a senior, Mark was a member of the Letterman's Club and was an Office Assistant.

Annette Hunt

Annette has been very active as a cheerleader throughout her high school years. She was chosen "Cheerleader of the Year" as a freshman and Varsity Captain her senior year. She was a member of annual staff in the ninth grade and was a Office Assistant her freshman and senior years. As a sophomore and junior she participated in Student Council. The last three years of high school Annette was in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the Letterman's Club, and was on the Tennis Team. During her senior year she was chosen as a Miss Pioneer Candidate and a member of the 1981-82 Homecoming Court.

Andy Harper

Andy participated in football and track all four years of high school. As a freshman he was a member of Pep Club and Prayer Club. He has been a member of the Letterman's Club since the tenth grade. His senior year Andy was in Variety Club and was elected as one of the top fifteen area football players.

Emily Smisson

As a freshman Emily was a cheerleader and a member of Pep Club and Prayer Club. Miss WRHS Pageant 1982

The top five finalists are interviewed by Mistress of Ceremonies Sarah Cawley. The top five contestants were Cindi Weese, Wendy Mullis, Patti Mahaffey, Angelia McKinney, and Melanie Giddens.

The talent award winner, Angelia McKinney sings and dances to the tune of "All That Jazz" from the Broadway musical Chicago.

Patti Mahaffey accompanies herself on the guitar as she sings "Follow Me."

Wendy Mullis performs a dramatic monologue from Neil Simon's God's Favorite.

"Chasing Rainbows"

The twenty-one contestants were "Chasing Rainbows," as the theme suggested, in the third annual Miss WRHS Pageant. After an opening number in which all of the girls danced, the casual wear competition began, in which the girls shared a brief message with the audience. Following this part was the evening wear segment of the pageant, after which the top ten finalists were announced. After an intermission, each of these finalists performed her talent for the audience and judges. At this time, the judges selected the top five contestants based on stage appearance and talent. After these girls each responded to an interview question, Melanie Giddens was crowned Miss WRHS 1982. The pageant Mistresses of Ceremonies were Sarah Cawley and Amanda Cooke. Between the different phases of competition, the audience was entertained by singers Tom Patrick, Judy Elder, Jonathan Shippey, Libby Land, and Steve Neal, and dancers Shirley Roberson and Suzanne Vargas.

Dancer Shirley Roberson and singer Judy Elder perform "Out Here on My Own," from Fame.

Take a Closer Look

One of the best aspects of attending WRHS is being able to meet others and get to know them. Our relationships help us look forward to school each day, for sharing time with others helps us forget about all the homework, tests, term papers, and book reports that make up the seemingly endless assignments we receive. Talking to our friends allows us to express our feelings and to experience good times, struggles, and memories we can keep forever. What would we do without the wonderful gift of ...

Friendship

(3) Huddling up, the juniors try to keep warm from the record-breaking January temperatures. (4) Benji Meacham and Maryetta Quednow share some time in the lobby at break. (5) Maurice Dudley, Adrian Haugabrook, and Craig Doe smile for the camera. (6) After school, Reece Watkins and Lorraine Bell sit and talk. (7) Jill Butler stops in her car for a few minutes before driving home from school. (8) Sitting in homeroom, Ben Patrick and Shawn Murry pass the time while waiting for the school day to begin. (9) Melanie Giddens pauses at her locker. (10) Tim Sharpe helps Ron Pry in his campaign for class president.

Senior Class

The Class of '82 began its senior year in an original way by using a different approach to the Homecoming Parade theme, "The Best of Times." The float showed a couple enjoying summer on the beach. Throughout their three years of high school, these spirited individuals proved consistently to be a creative and energetic group. Memorable moments include winning the spirit and hall-decorating awards, "rolling" a hall, winning the spirit link contest, and planning the Junior-Senior Prom and the Senior Ball. Each year they gave the task of float-building their best effort and had a lot of fun working on all three floats. After graduation, seniors in the Class of '82 will always have happy memories of the good times they shared at WRHS.

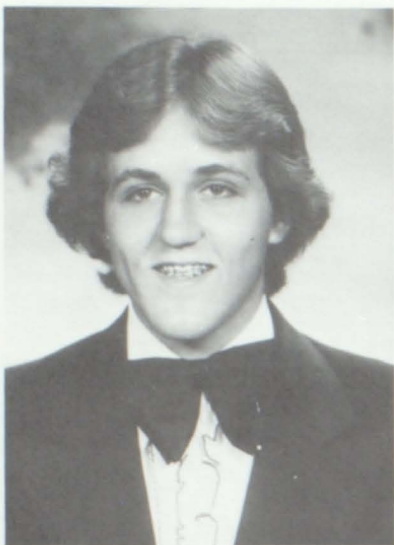

Before the Homecoming Parade, Tim Sharpe, Jay Hanson, Duane Fields, Linda Choney, and Janie Elliott wait for the judges' decision on the winner of the float competition.

Junior Class

This year's junior class proved its worth right from the start by winning the float competition. The class members are energetic and high-spirited, and they added a lot of life to each of the pep rallies. The juniors sold over $15,000.00 worth of magazines; this money gave them a very healthy budget with which to plan an enjoyable Junior-Senior Prom for the entire school. Other activities for the class members included purchasing their senior rings and winning the link contest at the Northside Pep Rally. Even though the juniors enthusiasm sometimes got out of hand, they usually just did their best to boost Demon spirit.

Keith Lauritsen, Greg McMichael, Damie Waddell, and Morris Borders endure club initiations.

Sophomores show their spirit at a pep rally.

The Sophomore class got the 1982 school year off to a good start by electing its officers and soon afterward placing third in the Homecoming Parade float competition. The class worked hard throughout the year to demonstrate their spirit and enthusiasm for WRHS. Although the sophomores were the victims of a few pranks, such as a huge smoke bomb which led to the cancellation of an entire month of pep rallies and other less serious pranks like light-hearted ridicule from the upper-classmen, by the end of the year they had become a unified, close-knit group well on its way to becoming a strong asset to our school.

Take a Closer Look

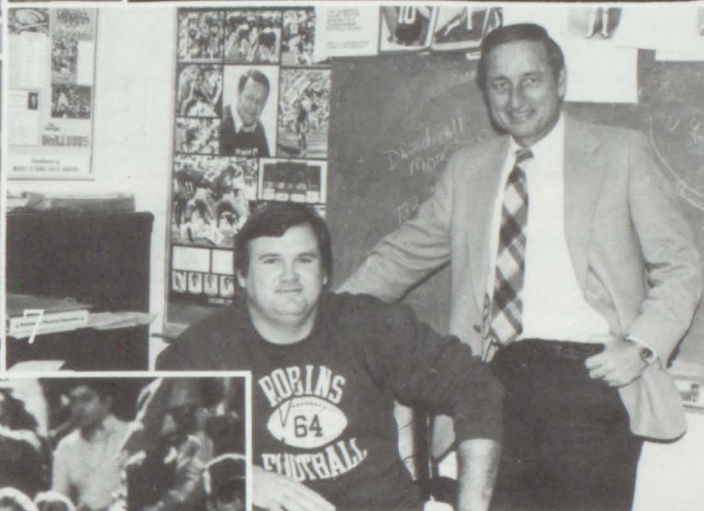

Team spirit at WRHS; that's what it's all about. Giving one's best effort and working towards a common goal. Our athletic groups give it all they've got; they exhibit true spirit. Our abilities always match the opponents', no matter what the score. And the numerical value may be in their favor or ours; whatever the case, the competition has provided an opportunity for growth and development. Whatever the result, we have met the opposition and successfully dealt with the . . .

Warner Robins 56 Jordan 18

Arthur Clark (23) demonstrates what happens when someone gets in his way.

Steve Boswell (44) and Joe Brooks (21) pursue a Jordan ball carrier.

Playing their opening game of the season, the Warner Robins Demons jumped out to an early 14 point lead over the Jordan Red Jackets of Columbus. The Demons quickly built their lead to 35 before the half. Jordan, however, did manage to score 18 fourth quarter points against the Demons, but not before the Demons had scored 56 points and had a firm lock on the victory.

A demon tries to keep warm and dry on the sideline.

A dirty Andy Harper watches his teammates play on the mud-soaked field.

Kevin Wall is being treated for a knee injury.

The Demons traveled to Athens, Georgia to play one of the teams many people believed would represent the North in Georgia AAAA state championship game, the Clarke Central Gladiators. However, the game really was not that close. Three times in the first half the Demons marched down the field only to be stopped inside the 20 yard line by turnovers due to a constant rainfall that would have made Noah feel at home. Finally, in the third quarter, the Demons held on to the ball long enough to score on a pass from quarterback Jay Griffin to split end Bryan Palmer. Clarke Central added a field goal in the fourth quarter but the Demons held on to win their second game of the season.

Both the Demons and the Hawks were undefeated going into the game. For the first half, neither team seemed to do very much offensively. It was not until late in the second quarter when the Demons exploded for 14 points and put the game out of reach for the Hardaway Hawks. The win gave the Demons the number one ranking among the state's AAAA teams.

Return specialist Greg Holmes (24) does his job returning punts against Baker.

Offensive linemen Morris Borders (62) Tim Volskay (54) and Duane Fields (75) run down field to help with the blocking.

With three wins already under their belts the Demons went into the Baker game ranked number one in AAAA competitions. The Demons had little trouble with the Baker Lions, racking up 367 total yards on offense while the defense allowed only 2 first downs and 53 yards total offense. The Demons moved into a 4 and 0 record and maintained their number one ranking in Georgia.

Defensive back Scott Mosley tackles a Waynesboro running back.

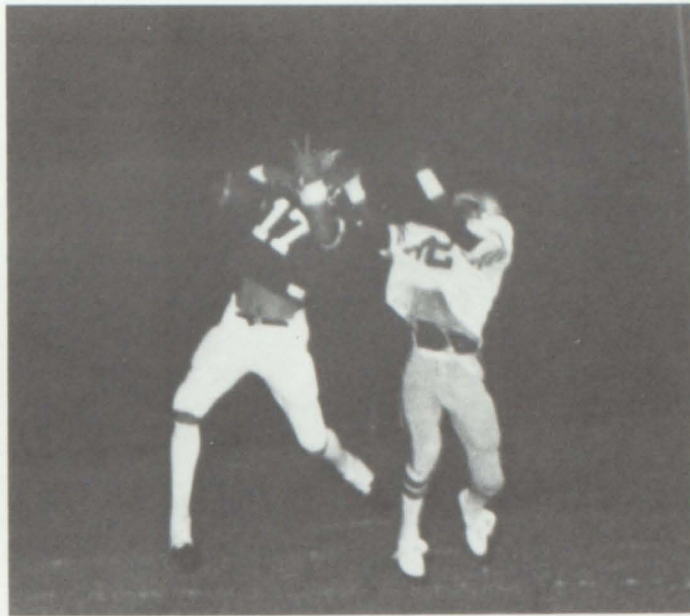

Sophomore runningback Leonard Tharpe gains yardage against the Hurricanes.

Cornerback Brad Griffin nearly intercepts a Waynesboro pass. This was Brad's second year as a starter.

Defensive players Mark McGee and Chuck Boyd come over to assist Joe Brooks' tackle of a Waynesboroback.

Defensive end Reggie Sutton hits the Waynesboro quarterback.

While the anxious crowd anticipated the crowning of the 1981 Homecoming Queen, the Demons relaxed around the team buses, enjoying a 14 point lead at halftime. After the crowning of the Queen, Angie Kidd, the team came rushing onto the field and quickly put 27 unanswered points on the scoreboard. The Demons rushed and passed for 410 total yards while holding Waynesboro to only 112 yards total. After the 1981 Homecoming festivities were over, the Demons remained the number one team in AAAA competition.

Warner Robins 27 Southwest 12

Quarterback Mark Starnes runs around the right end for a long gainer.

Junior Gary Singletary pass blocks for Quarterback Jay Griffin.

Using a balanced attack offensively and defensively the Demons managed to defeat the Southwest Patriots and their one man offensive attack. Patriots Quarterback Terry Brown was the only Patriot to carry the ball. Brown managed to score on two long runs but that is all Southwest managed to accomplish. A very aggressive defensive secondary intimidated the Patriot receivers all night long. Twice, the game had to be stopped to assist Patriot receivers off the field. The win gave Warner Robins their first sub-region victory and was the team's sixth win of the season.

Warner Robins 24 Shaw 0

Last year Warner Robins and Shaw met twice during the year, Warner Robins winning both with ease. This year the Demons won the contest again, running all over the Raider defense. Warner Robins ran for more than 300 yards on a rained-soaked field. On the other hand Shaw did not do much offensively and spent most of the night running three plays then punting. The home stands were packed at the beginning of the game but with a comfortable lead many of the Demon fans headed for shelter or their favorite after-game hang out. For those who weathered the storm, they saw Warner Robins win it's seventh game and remain undefeated.

Senior tailback Arthur Clark shows his versatility running and catching the football. Boo, as he is called, is the first string tailback and often swings out to flanker on passing downs. This is Boo's third year on varsity.

Warner Robins 28 Central 6

After a two-week rest, the Demons returned to action with a bang against the Central Chargers of Macon. Central was considered to be one of the toughest teams in the sub-region, but the Demons were a lot tougher. The game was never really close and Central's only score came late in the fourth quarter. The Demons gained 336 total yards and upped their record to 8-0.

Right-Junior Linebacker Steve Boswell is blocked by a Raider lineman. Far right Rodney McCarty (52) throws a block for fullback David Williams (32).

Warner Robins racked up 339 yards of offense with a balance attack, 184 yards rushing and 155 passing and held the Northeast Raiders to 119 yards on the ground and 46 yards passing. While the statistics looked good for the Demons the team did not. Warner Robins made a few mental mistakes but even with these mistakes the Demons managed to roll up 28 points, scoring a touchdown in every quarter of the game.

Senior Quarterback Mark Starnes (18) scrambles for a first down.

One of the many passes Bryan Palmer (86) caught during the 1981 season.

CITY CHAMPS

A crowd of more than 10,000 people jammed into International Stadium to watch the game of the year: Warner Robins against cross-town rival Northside. As in past years this game decided which team would continue into post-season playoff games. Warner Robins dominated the statistics even though it held only a small lead on the scoreboard. Northside scored on two mistakes made by the Demons. The big story for Warner Robins was Junior David "Hank" Williams who rushed for 231 yards, including two touchdowns on runs of 75 and 73 yards. The win was Warner Robins' tenth and gave them home field advantage in the region playoffs.

Co-Captains Roger Glover and Chuck Boyd decide on the coin toss: to take heads or tails.

Junior Joe Brooks lunges forward for the goal line.

Fullback David "Hank" Williams outruns the Eagle defender for one of his 70 yard runs.

The Demon defense gave up only 123 total yards to Northside. Here they stop the Northside Quarterback Jeff Greene.

The number one ranked Demons continued to roll as they beat Baker easily in the first round of the Region 2-AAAA playoffs. At first, Baker seemed tougher than they were when the Demons had played them in the regular season. It was a 21 point third quarter blast by the Demons that put the game away. The win advanced the Demons to the Region Championship Game against Central of Macon.

The Warner Robins Demons captured the Region 2-AAAA title, defeating the Central Chargers of Macon 21-8. Warner turned the ball over four times, but the tough Demon defense did not give Central a chance to capitalize on the mistakes. Fullback David Williams rushed for 137 yards and tailback Arthur "Boo" Clark rushed for 102 yards. Central gained 135 yards on offense, half of those yards came on a long bomb which covered 61 total yards. Warner Robins, on the other hand, gained 335 yards on offense.

Quarterback Mark Starnes (18) keeps the ball on a bootleg.

On Friday, November 27, at Cleveland Field in Valdosta, GA, a new page was written in the History of Demon Football. Warner Robins defeated the Valdosta Wildcats for the first time ever. The victory was made all the more sweet because our team beat theirs in their own "backyard," and because over the past four years we had lost our state championship dreams to three Region 1-AAAA opponents. The Demons built up a 10-0 halftime lead on a twenty-five yard field goal by Mark McGee and a one yard run by Joe Brooks. But in the third quarter Valdosta came back to take a 14-10 lead on two touchdowns and a controversial call. However, after Valdosta's final score, the Wildcats couldn't even manage a first down. And with 4:11 left in the game, Arthur Clark finished a quick 52-yard drive by running 1 yard for the game winning touchdown. Demons were Area Champs.

That ominous scoreboard which disappointed the home fans and delighted those of the visiting team.

Robert Davis is congratulated by fans after the victory.

On a cold December night down in Coffee County the Warner Robins Demons proved they were the best team in south Georgia. Warner Robins totally dominated Coffee County. The week before the game many Warner Robins fans had been drowned with statistics about the Smiths in Coffee County. One was big and the other was fast, but when the Demons threw the big one, George, for a yard loss, the game went down for Coffee. While the Demon defense shut down the Trojans, the Demon offense racked up 330 yards.

Coach Davis watches his team from the sideline.

STATE CHAMPS

In the playoff games the Warner Robins defense shut down the highly touted offenses of Valdosta, Coffee County, and finally Newnan. Newnan managed only 48 total yards and 6 first downs against a defense many people described as "awesome." While the Demon defenders were bruising the Newnan running backs, the Demon offense was slowly piling up numerous yards. Lead by Arthur Clark's 193 yards rushing, the offense ran and passed for 12 first downs and 388 total yards. Clark scored on runs of 7, 47, and 54 yards. After the game, fans rushed onto the field to congratulate the 1981 Georgia AAAA State Champions, the Warner Robins Demons. The Demons would later find out that they had been named National Champions as well. The long-awaited crown was ours!

This was one of the few times the Demons required the services of the hunting team.

Involvement is a vital part of our years at WRHS. When we actively participate in an organization or give of our time in service to others, we experience feelings of accomplishment and are sure that this time has been well-spent. Through our involvement in clubs we obtain useful knowledge about living and interacting with others. As we work with people who share our interests and as we enjoy the fun in striving to achieve a common goal, we develop a sense of belonging and understand the concept of ...

Anchor Club

The Anchor Club, a girls civic organization, provides service projects for the school and community. This year Anchor members have been very active. They answered pledge telephone calls for the Cancer Telethon, held a car wash, and visited a nursing home. The club members main project this year was a self-defense and rape prevention program that they presented to ninth grade girls in the Houston County junior high schools.

As their club decides on future activities and fund raisers, Kari and Krista Vizzini, Lori Ryan, and Tara Geise listen attentively at an Anchor Club meeting.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a national organization that is based on the motto, "Let Us Lead By Serving Others." This year, the WRHS chapter carried out this theme by tutoring students who were having difficulties in various subjects. The club planned numerous fund raisers, such as bake sales, car washes, and a rummage sale and service projects that included an Easter-Egg hunt at a children's home, and a visit to a nursing home. Beta Club members attended state convention in Savannah on February 12 and 13, at which all had an enjoyable time.

Debate Team

TEAM MEMBERS: Wesley Barfield, Chris Walsh, Michael Rowe, Leila Harley, John Morgan, Jeff Malone, Ron Greene, Russ Abney, SPONSOR: Billie Rooker, Reggie Wilson.

The Debate Team's purpose is to increase speaking and communication skills among students. Members participate in extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation, duet acting, and debates. Students go on tournaments which are mainly on Fridays and Saturdays; most are out of town. In January the top four members of the team competed in the Region 2-AAAA Debate Tournament at West Georgia College.

After long weeks of work, Russ Abney and Leila Harley present a Christmas gift to Mrs. Rooker in appreciation for her coaching advice.

Office Assistants

Office Assistants are seniors who perform tasks that are necessary for our school to be efficiently operated. These students fill out early dismissals and tardy slips, hand out each day's absentee sheet, mimeograph stencils, run errands for faculty members in the office and elsewhere, and relay messages to and from everyone at WRHS. The office assistants are appreciated for the help with which they provide our school.

Prayer Club

Prayer Club provides an opportunity for Christian students to meet together once a week and enjoy a morning devotional, usually provided by a guest speaker. These students served the community through numerous activities, one of which was a visit to a nursing home. Throughout the year people in the Prayer Club found their membership to be a fun and rewarding experience.

TRUMPETS: Marshal McDonald, Cindy Cox, Keith Brown, Steve McCullough, David Rose, Joey Harbert, Ron Vaughn, Tim Powell.

The Dixie Demon Band plays many roles at the school. With this year's new uniforms, the band members added more entertainment and color than ever before. During winter the previous quarter's marching band divided into the concert and symphonic bands. Each of these groups participates at festival in the winter and neither has ever before received a score lower than "superior". During spring quarter, the bands traveled to Knoxville, Tennessee, where they were invited to perform at the 1982 World's Fair. As a money raising project for this trip, band members sold Indian River Fruit during the fall.

Choraliers

What does a AAAA high school do when it loses two choral directors in two years? It simply hires a social studies teacher! Mrs. Beth McConnell, an economics teacher, accepted the job of director after two other teachers resigned. With the help of a handful of returning singers and a lot of new ones, she was able to put together a pleasant-sounding Chorus and organize our traditional ensemble, the Choraliers. Chorus is made up of anyone who enjoys singing and is able to take the class. Choraliers are students who audition before the director and any returning Choraliers, and then are voted upon by these students. Both groups worked throughout the '82 school year to entertain those for whom they performed.

Thespians

Wendy Mullis, President

Thespians purpose is to promote drama and the performing arts. This year's troupe got off to a good start by initiating several new members. The club worked diligently to prepare for convention, which took place on February 6 and 7 in Valdosta. The Thespians also produced and promoted the WRHS one-act play, Go Ask Alice. In addition the club sponsored our annual Miss WRHS Pageant in January.

Variety Club

The Variety Club, sponsored by Mr. Gupton and Mrs. Childs, with assistance from Mr. Sanders and Mrs. McConnell, is responsible for putting together each year's spring musical production, Revue. Plans began early in October for the show to open in April. Revue '82 included excerpts from A Chorus Line and Oliver, a Country-Western "State Fair," an expanded gospel section, and the traditional Rock-n-Roll part. The club members devoted much time and talent towards the production of an enjoyable collection of entertainment for everyone.

Student Government

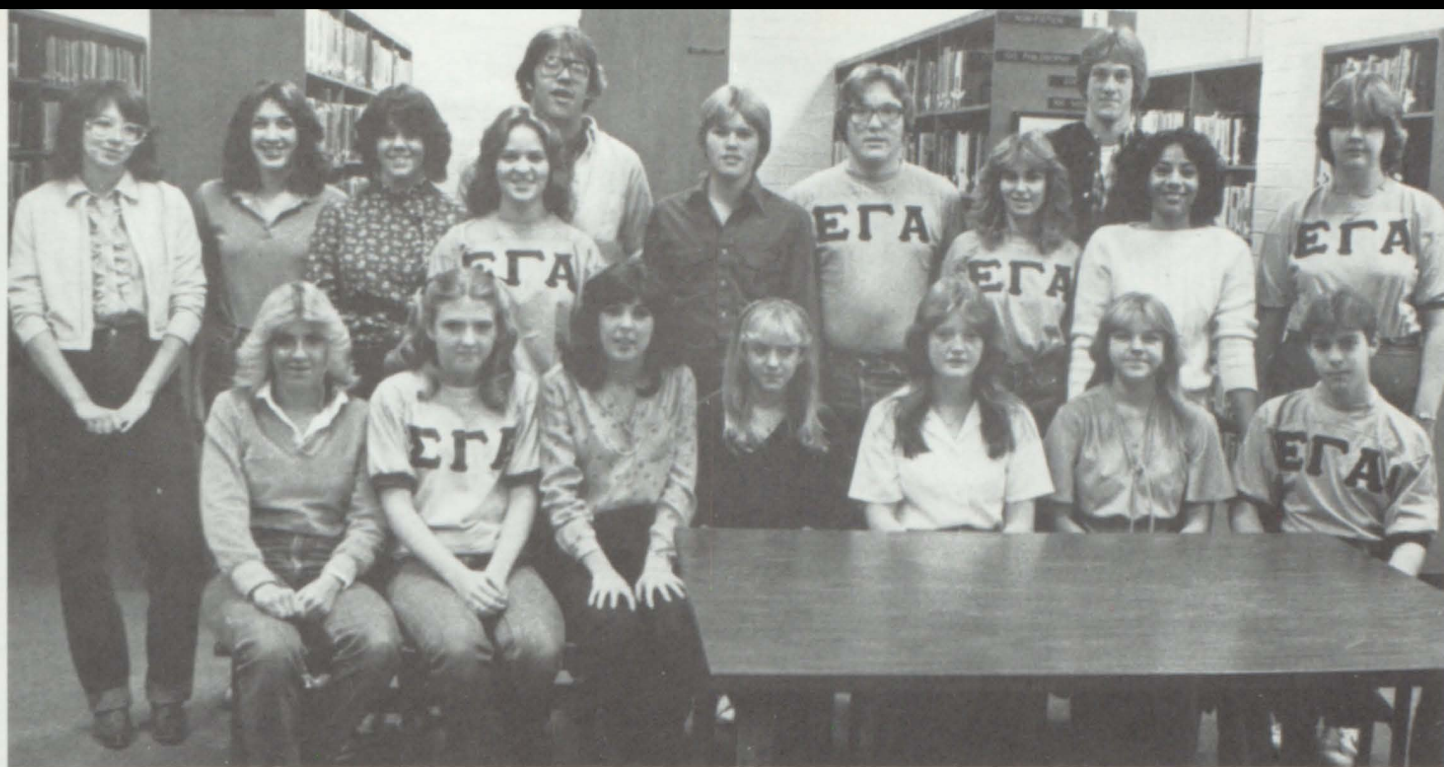

Student Government's year began with the school's election of President Garnett Singleton in the spring of '81. The clubs activities for the year included a well-planned week of Homecoming festivities and the planning of numerous other functions for the school. Student Government also helped with class officer elections and assisted in our school's preparation for the Northside game. In addition, the club members offered an open house at the high school for students and their parents.

French Club promotes the culture and language of France. In order for a student to be a member he should preferably have studied at least some French. This year's Cercle Francais held a window-wash to raise money. The club members also held a Christmas party in addition to a Spanish-French culture exchange at which the French Club tasted and learned about Spanish food. A French-Spanish exchange was also planned so that Spanish Club members could learn about and taste French cuisine.

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Senora Martha Valdes, is comprised of students who have taken at least one year of Spanish. In the fall members sold candles as a major fundraising project. They also planned car washes and bake sales for the spring. Every year the students volunteer their time to work at the Georgia Special Olympics as a community service. Overall, Spanish Club is simply a group which gets together to learn a language and have fun.

Math Club

The WRHS Math Club has been in existence since 1972, when our school received the charter from Mu Alpha Theta, the national math organization. Since that time the WRHS chapter has promoted math among students who may be interested. Twice a month members gather together and plan ways to encourage people to become involved with mathematics. Math Club held many fund-raising projects, the main one of which was a lemonade sale. The money made from these fund-raisers helps to cover the expenses incurred by the Math Team on its tournaments. In addition, this money pays for a tournament in which local junior highs compete.

At a club meeting, Cynthia Cox and Russ Abney work with a computer at the Board of Education.

Math Team

The Math Team is made up of students who enjoy competing in the field of mathematics. These students meet each week, learning about all of the various forms of math, from algebra to trigonometry. After each member takes a test to see who will be on the top team, the group goes on a tournament which is usually held on Fridays or Saturdays. These matches consist of a test given to each student and a two man team match to determine which group can get the highest points.

OFFICERS: Debbie Bell, Treasurer; Allison Hazen, President; Joni Elliot, Vice President.

The Science Club's main purpose is to promote interest in science at WRHS. The club members held bimonthly meetings at which they planned fund raisers and projects. Their most profitable money-making activity this year was a sale of corsages for girls to wear at the Homecoming Game.

Distributive Education Club of America

Executive Council: Tim Thomas, Assistant Program Chairman; Ron Pry, Program Chairman; Kris McCall; Jeanine Williams, Treasurer; Garnett Singleton, President; Gaye McCullough, Secretary and Reporter; Gretta Colbert; Mitch Coody, Vice President; Lisa Sirmans, Shoplifting Chairman; Jennifer Conley.

Most of the students in the DECA Program are planning careers in distribution. DECA is based on the democratic philosophies of private enterprise and competition. The program includes numerous projects; one of the main ones at WRHS is the shoplifting prevention program. DECA is implemented through the use of on-the-job training and classroom instruction. Each year, the WRHS chapter consistently wins many awards at district and state conventions.

Vocational Industrial Club of America

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is a club comprised of students enrolled in trade, industrial and technical education. In VICA students develop leadership abilities through participation in vocational, civic and club activities. VICA is a career education program which trains students for a trade or technical career while they are also attending high school. This year members went to a nursing home at Christmas and Valentine's Day; they held a toy drive and can food drive.

Vocational Opportunities Club of America

The VOCA Club is a statewide vocational program for high school students who have special needs. It has been a part of WRHS since the 1971 school year, and Mr. Robert P. Cruthirds has always been the coordinator. Many VOCA Club members attended convention at St. Simon's Island in April at which time they competed in several categories. One of the club's main activities is to present the annual employer/employee banquet for local businesses in appreciation for their help with VOCA's work throughout the school year.

Future Business Leaders

Future Business Leaders provides an opportunity for the students to learn more about a career in business; establish occupational goals; gain self-confidence; get first-hand experience with business people; ease the transition from school to work; practice efficient money management; and, learn the value of community responsibility. The Future Business Leaders members are also in the VOT Program and have many activities relating to their jobs and employers. The money-making projects are used for proceeds to give each student's employer a banquet or dinner during Spring Quarter.

The main goal of Future Homemakers is to improve home and family living and to develop youth potential. FHA attempted to achieve this goal through several projects this year. The club members put together a unit on family togetherness which included bumper stickers, pamphlets, coloring sheets for children, and radio spots. FHA also visited the children's ward at Houston County Hospital and gave a Halloween party at a local day-care center. In addition, the club decorated dolls for the salvation army, entered a statewide nutrition contest, and made plans for summer camp at Lake Jackson. And on several holidays FHA members decorated our school lunchroom.

Industrial Arts Club

The Industrial Arts Club promotes the study of the industrial arts, which includes the use of wood, metals, tools, and various other types of equipment. Those wishing to join should have taken some courses in industrial arts or at least have some knowledge on the subject. The club members worked throughout the school year to raise enough money to go to convention in the spring. One of their main fund raisers was the production and sale of message boards.

Pep Club

At a football game in the fall, Ann Storz, Angela Anderson, and Laura Dunstan add the finishing touches to the sign that only minutes later the Demons will tear through.

Pep Club is in charge of increasing school spirit and sprucing up enthusiasm for the athletic teams. The club members painted signs and helped plan pep rallies in order to get WRHS fired up. A fund raising activity which helped the club in its efforts was a spirit link contest in which members of the three classes purchased links, each class attempting to make its chain the longest.

Steve Boswell and Scott Moseley listen up at an FCA meeting.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes meets every Thursday before school in order to hear a morning devotional. The club usually invites guest speakers to meetings. Any money that the club members make from fund raisers goes toward community projects such as one in December in which they visited a nursing home and decorated the Christmas tree. Once or twice a quarter the group has a "huddle" at a member's house where the athletes listen to tapes or hear someone's testimony.

Humanities

Humanities isn't just a class, it is a club, an entity of its own. As a subject, the purpose of Humanities is to increase the student's general knowledge and appreciation of his cultural heritage and to teach him about the various liberal arts: history, language, literature, fine arts, music, religion, and philosophy. Humanities students enjoy themselves while learning, though; field trips, workshops, and class discussions lighten the workload. Humanities provides a good opportunity to study and learn and have a lot of fun in the process.

For his workshop, John Waters demonstrates the techniques needed to be a clown. Each Humanities student is required to do a workshop in which he teaches the class a skill.

Maria Blair, Jay Hanson, and Ritchie Durdin prepare The Paper for sale.

After beginning the year at a slow pace following the departure of last year's newspaper adviser, this year's staff was able to get the first edition in print by late November. The staff next underwent some personnel changes and made a few alterations in the newspaper. One of the first of these was in changing the publication's name from Fire and Brimstone to The Paper. Each issue was headlined by The Paper in a different language from the last edition's. All the articles and features are headlined with the word the and then the title, such as "The Sports" or "The Horoscope." The staff members did their best to print a good newspaper for WRHS.

1982 Pioneer Staff

The 1982 Pioneer Staff began making plans at the Georgia Yearbook Event held in Atlanta in June 1981. At the workshop, the staff decided on the theme, "Take a Closer Look . . ." and sketched out how the annual would appear. The Pioneer Staff took home two "Special Awards," one to Editor Jonathan Shippey, and one to photographer Michelle Perry. Throughout the year, staffers did everything possible towards achieving a creative, informative, and entertaining edition of Pioneer '82.

Take a closer look! Could these really be the people who put together the '82 Pioneer?

High School is a great time in our lives. We spend seven to eight hours on campus each day; but when that 3:15 bell rings the action really begins. There's so much to do: clothes to buy, music to listen to, movies to see, dates to ask out, food to gorge on, and T.V. shows to watch. The time is here for us to enjoy, and that's what we can do - simply have a good time and live

Revue '81

Revue '81, under the direction of Mrs. Libby Childs, was produced on a theme of nostalgia. The show, which ran seven nights from late April to early May, opened with "The Twilight Zone" and proceeded into A Musical Comedy. This part of the show was about five dancers who desperately want to "make it" into a show. After intermission, there was a musical trip to the Grand Ole Opry, and then the Old-time Rock-n-Roll section began. This part of Revue '81 included songs by the Supremes, the Beach Boys, and the Lettermen and was highlighted by a tribute to the late John Lennon. Next came contemporary hits followed by a finale of marching Mouseketeers. The show was fun and entertaining for all who participated and attended.

Tom Patrick, Dale Carothers, Kathy Gentry, and Vicky Chesser take the Revue '81 audience into the Twilight Zone . . .

By the time Mary McDonald is finished with her address to the audience, she discovers that she doesn't feel like dancing.

"Golden Oldies" Jenny Word and Alan Kaplan are M.C.'s for Rock-n-Roll Part 1.

Kathy Gentry sings of "Yesterday" in a special tribute to John Lennon.

Tracy Carothers wonders "Could She Have This Dance?"

"Nostalgia"

"Oh Boy!" Dean Christian, Brian Newberry, Tom Patrick, Kris Tallant, Kathy Gentry, Natalie Nichols, and Vicky Chesser are all overjoyed because they got the part in A Musical Comedy.

Tom Patrick, accompanied by Laura Dunstan and Sherry Venable, sings "Woman" in "A Salute to John Lennon."

Mistresses of Ceremonies Natalie Nichols and Karen Chappell add a special touch to the show.

Beach Boys Daryl Joiner, Dean Christian, Dale Carothers, and Gary Crawford sing about those "California Girls."

Prom Night 1981

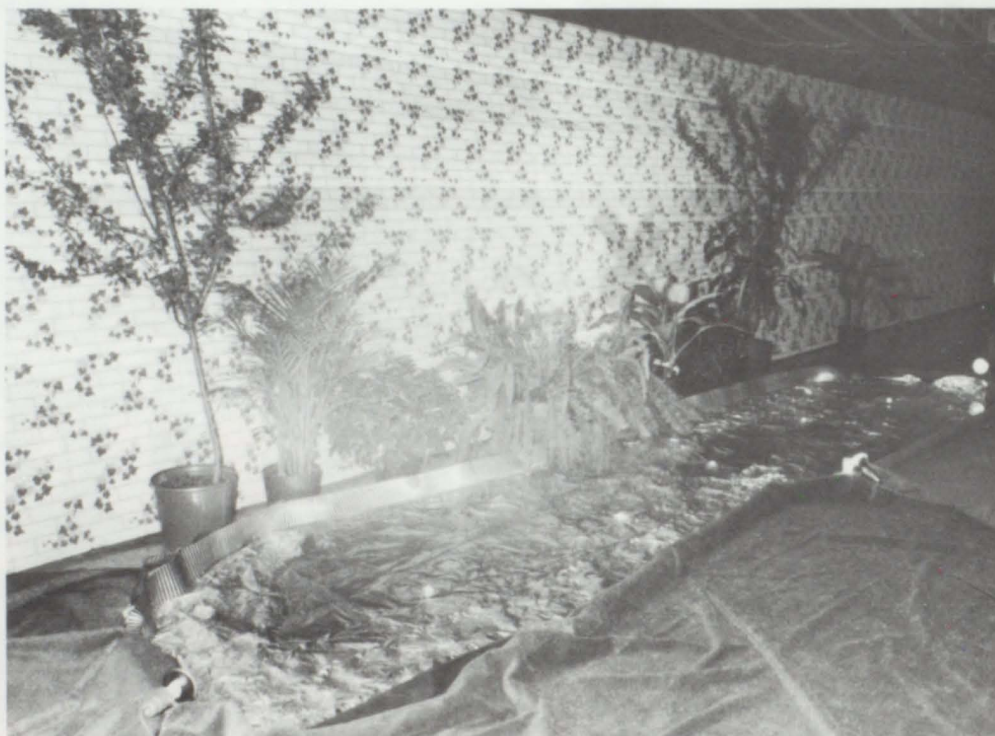

"I Made it Through the Rain"

Tammy Madry, Charles Hankins, and Corrie Sierak take a break between dances.

The prom's theme is carried out in the lobby through the use of raindrops, clouds, and umbrellas.

The 1981 Junior-Senior Prom, which took place on May 9, was one of the best in the school's history, according to the administrators. The theme, "I Made it Through the Rain," was developed by having clouds, raindrops, and umbrellas hung from the lobby ceiling. After leaving the lobby one would "make it through the rain" by walking underneath the rainbow at the gym's entrance and finding a beautiful spring evening within. Decorations inside the gym included a waterfall, a "lake" with floating candles, a gazebo, and tables ornamented with flower arrangements and raindrop candles. Tannhauser provided entertainment for the prom, and among the refreshments served was fresh boiled shrimp. All agreed that the Class of '82 provided a well-planned, well-produced Junior-Senior for themselves and the '81 Seniors.

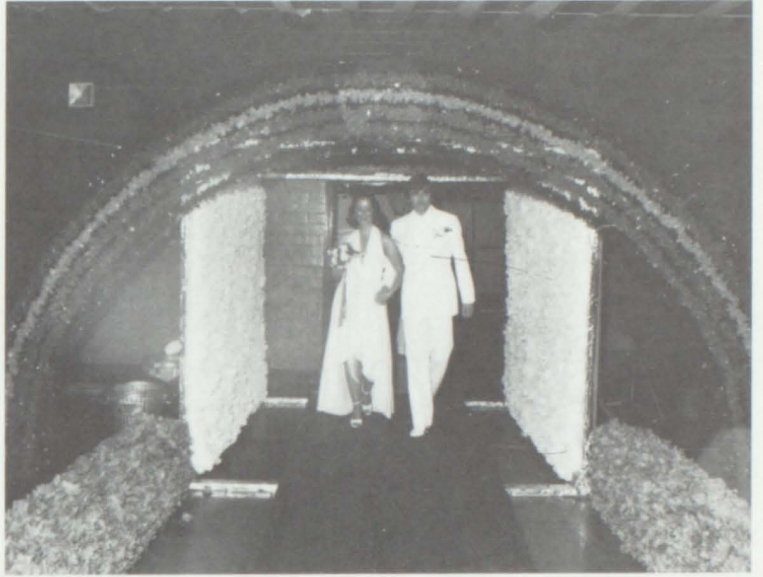

One of the fancy decorations at the prom was this lake which actually contained water and floating candles.

Toni Davis and Gary Merrow are served refreshments by William Clark.

Making their entrance through the rainbow, Lisa Ard and her date from another school arrive at the prom.

The great band Tannhauser plays its own special blend of pop and rock for the crowd at the dance.

Snow covers the ground and ice encases tree branches in the January winter storm. The storm moved over almost the entire country, and Warner Robins was no exception.

Israeli Prime Minister Menachim Begin is greeted at Robins Air Force Base.

A B-52 bomber sits at RAFB. While President Reagan cut the budget everywhere, he dramatically increased defense-spending.

Snow adds a touch of beauty to Warner Robins, as seen in this picture and the one below.

Arthur was praised by the critics and public alike as being an excellent movie. It also provided another top-five single for Christopher Cross.

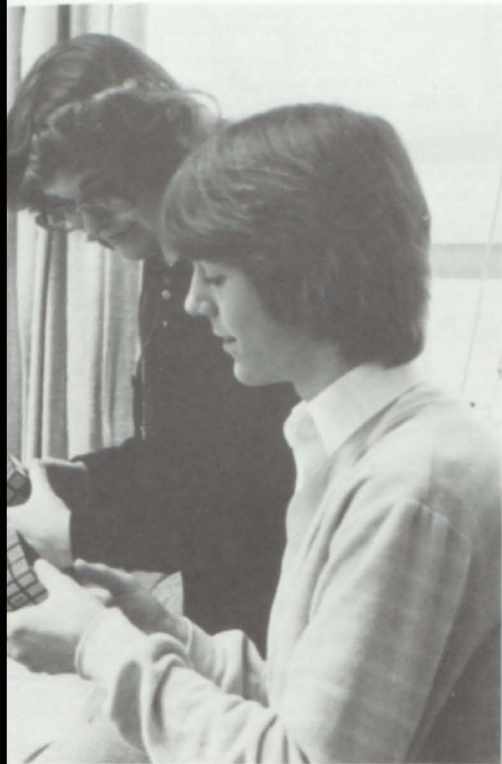

Brooke Shields was her usual controversial self when she starred in Endless Love.

Kim Carnes smiles after being notified of the sales of her album Mistaken Identity and single "Bette Davis Eyes."

Miss WRHS Melanie Giddens takes her walk just moments after having been crowned.

Cubists Carla Peterman and Tim Powell perfect their timing on Rubik's cubes. Tim has done the cube in as little as 44 seconds.

Editor's Message

If I had to choose one high school activity or job of which I am most proud, it would definitely be my position as Editor of the '82 Pioneer. Ever since preliminary planning at workshop last June, the annual staff and I have been dedicated to getting the Pioneer organized and planned-out so that each of the 288 pages was effectively and intelligently used. I hope you will agree that we have reached our objective.

If just one person finds his memories captured in this annual when he looks through it later on, then the long hours, all-night yearbook sessions, hard work, and frustrations will all be worth it. I encourage everyone to take a closer look and find what this publication can offer you personally. Enjoy it; it's yours!

One additional note: Thank you to all my friends, specifically the Humanities class, Janelle, Bruce, and Tracey; and to my family, especially Mom and Dad. Without all of these people, this book would not exist.

Jonathan A. Shippey
Editor, 1982 PIONEER

With one more look at you
I could learn to tame
The clouds and let the sun
Shine through . . .
Leave a troubled past
And I might start anew.
I'll solve the mysteries
If you're the prize . . .
Refresh these tired eyes
With one more look at you.

With one more look at you
I might overcome the anger
That I've learned to know,
Find a peace of mind
I lost so long ago.
Your gentle touch
Has made me strong again,
And I belong again . . .

That I had dreamed I'd be.
My spirit feels a promise:
I won't be alone ...
We'll love and live more —
Love and live
Forever ...

With one more look at you
I'd learn to change the stars
And change our fortunes too.
I'd have the constellations
Paint your portrait, too.
So all the world might
Share this wondrous sight
The world could end
Each night
With one more look at you ...
With one more look at you ...
I Want
One More Look At You.
